ELIHU B. WASHBURNE.

[Springfield (Mass.) Republican.]

In one of those more or less apocryphal "interviews" to which Mr. Henry Wilson has been subjected of late by an enterprising metropolitan press, the conversation turns upon a quite novel topic, viz.: the succession to General Grant. The Vice President is made to speak in the most flattering terms of Mr. Blaine, and in the same breath to intimate a pretty clear conviction that the coming man is not Mr. Blaine, but a Mr. Elihu B. Washburne, of Paris and Galena.

Whether the Vice President actually unbosomed himself to this extent, for the benefit of the young gentleman with the note-book, we can't say. It doesn't much matter. The interview might very well have occurred, if it didn't. The language put in the Vice President's mouth sounds exactly like him. If he hasn't said all this, he has, undoubtedly, thought it. For Henry Wilson has been in politics a good many years, and has cultivated his political sense. Few keener eyes than his for discerning the signs of the times, few more practiced and sensitive fingers upon the popular pusle, few judgments that are oftener varied by the event. It didn't need a New York reporter to tell us that Henry Wilson knows a strong candidate when he sees him.

For that matter, it did not require Henry Wilson to tell us that a candidate of that sort is at present biding his time in Paris. Mr. Washburne's strong points lie on the surface; they could not well escape the notice of a man of much less political experience and sagacity than the Vice President. Mr. Washburne is a Republican. He is a Western man. He made a valuable reputation in Congress as a "watch-dog of the Treasury." He has made a very successful Minister. He has been out of politics for some years past, while still remaining in the public eye. He has thus escaped responsibility for party blunders, and kept well aloof from party unpleasantness. Blaine would rather it should be Washburne than Morton; Morton, as a matter of feeling, would rather it should be Washburne than Blaine. If past friendship and mutual good offices count for anything, it is a pretty safe assumption that Grant would rather it should be Washburne than either of them. Indeed, there is a prevalent opinion in the outer political circles that if Washburne does does not prove to be the man, it will not be for lack of any assistance that a partial and grateful administration can afford him. Add, that he takes hayseed in his politics, and is well thought of in consequence by the gregarious granger. Add, finally, that he comes of a "lucky" family, of which he is, perhaps, the luckiest member.

There is no telling what the next two years have in store for us. But, on general principles, it is a good deal easier to flank a nomination for the Presidency than to take it by storm, or to surrounded it and starve it out. Indeed, the only thing better than a well executed flank movement is a surprise.

THE DUTY OF A WOMAN TO BE A LADY.

Wildness is a thing which girls cannot afford. Delicacy is a thing which cannot be lost or found. No art can restore to the grape its bloom. Familiarity without love, without confidence, without regard, is destructive to all that makes woman exalting and ennobling.

"The world is wide, these things are small;
They may be nothing, but they may be all."

Nothing? It is the first duty of a woman to be a lady. Good breeding is good sense. Bad manners in a woman is immorality. Awkwardness may be ineradicable. Bashfulness is constitutional. Ignorance of etiquette is the result of circumstances. All can be condoned, and do not banish man or woman from the amenities of their kind. But self-possessed, unshrinking and aggressive coarseness of demeanor may be reckoned as a state prison offense, and certainly merits the mild form of restraint called imprisonment for life. It is a shame for women to be lectured on their meanness. It is a bitter shame that they need it. Women are umpires in society. It is they to whom all mooted points should be referred. To be lady is more than to be a prince. A lady is always in her right inalienably worthy of respect. To a lady, princes and peasants alike bow. Do not have impulses that need restraint. Do not wish to dance with the prince unsought; feel differently. Be such that you confer honor. Carry yourself loftily that men shall look up to you for reward, not at you in rebuke. The natural sentiment of man toward woman is reverence. He loses a large means of grace when he is obliged to be trained into propriety. A man's ideal is not wounded when a woman fails in worldly wisdom; but if in tact, in sentiment, in grace, in delicacy, in kindness, she should be found wanting, he receives an inward hurt.—Gail Hamilton.

When they tried to force Miss Gay, of Independence, Mo., into a marriage against her will, she kicked the minister's hat off, knocked the young man down, and rode off on a mule, with one foot on each side of him.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

We, the delegated representatives of the Republican party of Illinois, declare the following to be substantially our political belief:

1. That emancipation and enfranchisement having been secured by the Thirteenth and Fifteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, and by appropriate legislation for their enforcement; and equality of civil rights having been guaranteed by the Fourteenth Amendment, such guaranty should be enforced by appropriate statutes, so that the broad ægis of Federal power may be over black and white citizens alike.

2. That, as one of the consequences of the late civil war, about $382,000,000 of non-interest bearing Treasury notes were issued to, and are now held by, the people as a safe and convenient currency, it would be unwise and inexpedient, in the present financial condition of the people, to attempt the immediate cancellation of any portion of such Treasury notes.

3. That the laws for the establishment of national banks having secured to the States and Territories the best system of bank circulation ever before afforded the people, it should be no longer confined to a privileged class, but should be free to all alike, under general and equal laws, the aggregate volume of currency to be regulated by the untrammeled laws of trade.

4. That we re-affirm the declaration of the National Republican Convention of 1872, in favor of a return to specie payment at the earliest practicable day.

5. That we commend the measures which have passed the popular branch of Congress, looking to the cheapening and perfection of Inter-State railway transportation, and the improvement of navigation at the mouth of the Mississippi river.

6. That we are in favor of an amendment of the Constitution of the United States providing for the election of the President and Vice President by the direct vote of the people, without the intervention of the Electoral College.

7. That the Republican party proposes to respect the rights reserved by the people to themselves, as carefully as the powers delegated by them to the State and Federal Governments; and it will aim to secure the rights and privileges of the citizen without regard to nativity or creed; and it is opposed to interference by law with the habits, tastes or customs of individuals, except to suppress licentiousness or to preserve the peace and safety of the citizens of the State.

8. That while we accord to the railway companies of this State the fullest measure of property rights, we also demand for the people reasonable charges and rigid impartiality in the transportation of passengers and freight—such guaranty to be secured by appropriate State and National legislation.

Relying upon the foregoing declaration of principles and policy, and upon the broad, clear record of the Republican party during its fifteen years of State and Federal administration, we appeal once more to that silent yet conclusive tribunal, the ballot-box, confident that the people will endorse overwhelmingly the action of this representative Convention.

DECATUR, ILLINOIS:
Tuesday Evening, Sept. 8.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

For State Treasurer,
THOMAS S. RIDGWAY,
Of Gallatin.

For Superintendent of Public Instruction,
WILLIAM B. POWELL,
Of Kane.

For Congress, 11th District,
JOSEPH G. CANNON,
Of Douglas.

THE Champaign Times states "upon authority" that Gen. Black will not be a candidate for Congress this year.

THE Grand Lodge, I. O. G. T., met at Bloomington this morning. The delegates from Decatur are D.L. Bunn, B. H. Righter, J. R. Gorin, and Miss Culver. We have made arrangements for a synopsis of the proceedings each day.

A gentleman remarked last evening that he didn't see any use in making a fuss about the colored children entering the public schools, since the presence of the despised race in the Congress of the United States had ceased to attract attention.

THE Chicago Tribune is the only paper that we know of which has "the amplest evidence that the State authorities of the South are both willing and able to punish the murderers" of that section. None of the scoundrels engaged in the Tennessee and Louisiana butcheries have been arrested that we know of, and if the Tribune has information of that sort, the public would be glad to know its precise character.

Now that the Niantic lost man, Pierson, has turned up in his own proper person, alive and well, what will the spiritualists have to say about the mistake their medium made, when consulted with reference to his fate? It will be remembered that the spirits told all about the manner of his death, and the disposition of his remains, but, alas, for superhuman fallibility, the sequel turns out differently.

IT is arranged that a Republican Convention be held in Atlanta, Georgia, on the 10th of October, to take into consideration the condition of affairs in the South. It is thought that by holding it there, with representation from each of the reconstructed States, a clearer view may be gained of the situation, and a better understanding be had of the needs of the South. The President and other official representatives of the Government will be in attendance.

SOME time ago an estimable lady of Staunton, Va., became very enthusiastic on the woman's rights question. Her friends not approving of her course, sought a cure by sending her to the insane asylum, where she was kept until a few days ago. Having read up the Brooklyn scandal, and seeing the names of leading apostles of the new political faith freely mixed up with it, she became so disgusted as to voluntarily abandon her views, and has consequently been released from durance. Score one for the scandal.

THE Post and Mail says concerning the policy that should be pursued in view of the late outrages in the South:

So far as yet appears, the public sentiment of the mass of the Southern people is aroused and incensed at the late barbarities practiced by certain barbarians who richly merit execution. It is for the best interests of the entire country to let the South have a fair chance to deal out justice to its own outlaws, if it will avail itself of the opportunity. Nothing will sooner Mexicanize that region than to eternally assume that its people are incapable of self-government and unworthy of the least public confidence.

ANENT this Beecher-Tilton scandal, there are some men whose wives and daughters have been tradnced who immediately rush into the courts with suits for damages, as if the whole matter were a speculative, money-making affair. Out west, now, the person making any such accusations against a lady would be first horse-whipped and then shot, or else shot unceremoniously, according to the particular grade of aggravation in the case. The difference, however, is a geographical one. The east cares very little for honor and a great deal for money, while out here it is just the opposite. Let the east come west and learn a little civilization.

THE CALIFORNIA WHEAT CROP.

Ten years ago California produced only wheat enough for her own consumption, if indeed enough was raised in the State for that purpose. The immense proportions which that crop has reached in a single decade is one of the most astonishing events of the century. The Chronicle well remarks that "If this immense mass of wheat had come down upon us in a shower from heaven it could not have been more unlooked for than it was a few years ago. The surprises in California in an agricultural way have been greater than those of the mineral, astonishing and bewildering as they have been."

The amount of surplus is stated in figures at 20,000,000 bushels, or about 600,000 tons. To form a definite idea of what these figures mean is a very different matter. The New York Herald, in order to assist the understanding, says that, if loaded in carts, each containing a ton, to be hauled to New York, the first would be at its destination when the last was leaving San Francisco. This, at first thought, seems extravagant; but, in order to travel comfortably, not much more than 200 could be ranged upon a mile, and hence the statement is not very wide of the mark. The Bulletin suggests that, if loaded into vessels of 1,000 tons burden, and the 600 ships were to sail in sight of each other, say, 20 miles apart, the line would extend 12,000 miles, or half-way round the globe. The last one might just be leaving the Golden Gate when the first one was entering the harbor of Liverpool. Such illustrations, though not very original, may serve to show how great an element in the economy of the civilized world the wheat crop of California has become.—Chicago Tribune.

CINCINNATI has a curiosity of the Quilp variety in the person of a deaf mute printer known as "Dummy Davis." The lack of other senses was made up in him by a temper of rare brutality, and a disposition violent, vindictive, and irresponsible. He has broken women's legs, mutilated children, maimed men, and established a reputation for "ugliness" which found expression in the general belief that he would yet kill a man. His offenses have always been lightly punished on account of his natural affliction. His father is one of the proprietors of the Vienna Circus, now on exhibition at Cincinnati. Davis was allowed the free run of the place, and on the occasion which justified the popular expectation was in a bad humor. He was stirring up the monkeys in a cage, when his father ordered him to desist. "Dummy Davis," refusing to obey, a policeman was ordered to eject him. The officer endeavored to do so, when Davis shot him dead. The corpse lay in the tent during the performance, the Dummy coolly joining the audience in the main amphitheatre where he was arrested. It is a curious fact, which meets the charge against Dickens of exaggeration in the character of Quilp, that Davis, with all his hideous moral deformity, was married to a very decent young woman.

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

Hon. L. J. Bond, of Monticello, is in town to-day.

Senator R. J. Oglesby boarded the passenger train for the west to-day noon.

I. W. Ehrman left for the Cincinnati Exposition this meridian.

Al. Ormsby left for the same destination.

R. Liddle boarded the east-bound train this noon.

Hon. John R. Eden, member of Congress for the 15th congressional district, is the city.

B. Stine, the popular clothing merchant, left for New York this noon. He has gone for the purpose of buying goods, and will probably be absent two weeks.

Mrs. W. W. Swearingen arrived here from her old home in Oskaloosa, Iowa, this morning.

Rev. Charles Jacobs, of Milwaukee, is spending a few days in the city.

And to-day we get Portland papers from him, "which the same" is S. B. Crissey, so that he has evidently got to the jumping off place, "away down in Maine."

Mr. Wm. Hunt, son-in-law of Isaac Shellabarger, Esq., left for his home in New Jersey to-day noon.

THE Black Hills gold excitement should be received with a due allowance of caution. There will be such a rush of people to these diggings that there must necessarily be a great deal of suffering. This, at least, always has been the case, and there is no reason to suppose that the Black Hills will be an exception. Even old miners will rush to new diggings on the least intimation that there is "a good thing." Only a few years ago when diggings were good around Helena City a ragged miner came down from some point a hundred miles or so up the mountains with a couple of mules which he loaded with provisions, and started back remarking that he had a "good thing up thar," and should stay all winter. At least two thousand miners tracked that lucky man and found his good thing to be a couple of Digger squaws. Don't put too much faith on the good thing in the Black Hills.

BEECHER AGAIN

His Answer to Tilton's Suit.

The War of Races in the South.

LIFE INS. SUIT.

RELIEF FOR MRS. TILTON.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRES.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—The answer of Henry Ward Beecher to the complaint of Theodore Tilton was received to-day by Beecher's attorneys, and was at once served on the plaintiff, together with the affidavit. It was served from the office of Tracy, Catlin & Brodhead. Notice of trial for the term of the City Court, beginning the third Monday of September.

Defendant answers to complaint, first, that each and every allegation in said complaint contained, except that plaintiff and Miss Elizabeth R. Richards were married on October 20th, 1855, and lived together as husband and wife up to 1874, is utterly false. Second, that this defendant never had, at any time or at any place, any unchaste or improper relations with the wife of the plaintiff, and never attempted or sought to have any such relations.

[Signed] SHEARMAN & STERLING,
Attorneys for defendant.

Beecher's affidavits accompanying the answer were dated Twin Mountain, N. H., and are attested before New Hampshire officials, and service acknowledged by Tilton's attorneys.

Counter notice of trial was at the same time served by Morris & Pearsall upon Shearman & Sterling, who admitted service thereof.

The Christian Union of this week says: Ever since the public accusation, Mr. Beecher's mail has been a most singular and wonderful testimony to the steadfastness, purity rnd strength of that faith which a long and consistent life of goodness inspires. It often numbers sixty or seventy letters per day. It comes from every part of America, and, indeed, of the world. Many of these letters are from old political enemies; many from places where once his name was execrated, and it is also worthy of remark that members of all denominations have joined in the tribute.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 7.—Judge McManamra, of the circuit court of Owen county, where the recent murders and disturbances occurred, in the course of a long and earnest charge to the grand jury impaneled to examine the cases, declared that unless they fulfilled their duties fearlessly, and brought indictments against the law breakers without fear or favor, he would summon a grand jury from another county that would.

He called especial attention to the conduct of the Sheriff of Owen county, who had within a few days willfully allowed a murderer for whom he had a bench warrant to come into the county and ride through the streets of Owentown without offering to serve the warrant, even when his attention was directed to the man. A different state of affairs is to be inaugurated.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 7.—At a mass meeting of citizens of Maury Co., Tenn., held at Columbia to-day, resolutions were adopted denouncing in strong terms the lawless outrages recently committed in this State, approving the energetic policy inaugurated by the Chief Executive of the State, and appealing to the citizens of the counties in which the disturbances have occurred to come earnestly and energetically to his support and show to the world that we are capable of self-government, and need not the aid of Federal bayonents or other Federal intervention to preserve law and order.

Chief Justice Nicholson, Judge Martin and other prominent citizens addressed the assembly.

LITTLE ROCK, Sept. 7.—An enrolled copy of the new Constitution was signed to-day by all members but seven—all Republicans. The Convention adopted a series of resolutions condemning all acts of violence and outrages in the State and in the South generally against any class of people; particularly reprobating any outrages against the colored people, and all attempts to stir up strife between them and the whites. Cordially inviting immigration to the State, and promising protection to all good citizens.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—A Baltimore dispatch says that on Saturday afternoon the greater portion of the business section of Frostburg, Allegheny county, Md., was burned. Loss $145,000. Insurance $75,000.

BOSTON, Sept. 7.—The widow of the late Col. Thomas E. Chickering sued the Globe Life Insurance Company for $20,000, the amount of a policy on her husband's life, payment of which was refused on the ground that the premiums were not paid. Plaintiff showed that the agent of the company guaranteed the payment of the premiums as an offset of his indebtedness to the Chickering Company. The Supreme Court to-day rendered judgment against the insurance company, holding that it was bound by the promise of its agent.

ST. PAUL, Sept. 7.—A dispatch from Bismarck to the Evening Dispatch says a party of fifty men will leave Bismarck in about thirty days for the Black Hills. The party will be composed of experienced miners and hunters who not only know the color of gold and habits of Indians, but are sharp enough to evade the military, and who, once in the Hills, can live as red men, and consequently will not bother themselves with supplies to any great extent.

NEW HAVEN, Sept. 7.—The buildings of the New Haven Wheel Company were burned to-night. The fire is still ragiag, but will probably be confined to those buildings. Fifteen in all were destroyed, with a very heavy stock. The loss is now estimated at from $350,000 to $500,000; insurance $100,000.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 7.—A destructive fire is reported to have occurred at Russelville, Ky., destroying the court house and other buildings. No particulars known here.

EGG HARBOR, Sept. 7.—The pine woods are on fire around here, also at Hammonton, and several thousand acres, including cranberry bogs, have been burned over.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—The members of Plymouth church are contributing to a fund for the relief of Mrs. Tilton, and already seventeen hundred dollars have been collected.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.

The Union Temperance Prayer Meeting will be held in the lecture room of the Presbyterian Church on Tuesday evening—meeting to continue one hour. Let all be present and prompt.

They keep the largest stock of dry goods in Decatur—they retail more goods than any other Dry Goods House in the United States, according to population, and their expenses are less in proportion to sales. Besides they are thus enabled to buy most of their goods of first hands and by the Case and Package, which gives them great advantage over small dealers. jun 2-d&wly

Held for Robbery.—This morning Marshal Haworth arrested one Lewis Morris, on the hill near Idlewild, for robbing the residence of Mrs. Frances Corning, about a month ago. The fellow owned up to having taken the things and told where some of them could be found. He was taken before Justice Baker this morning, who held him to bail in the sum of $200, in default of which he was committed. The articles taken were jewelry and clothing.

Some Grit.—One day last week a man and his wife took lodgings at a certain boarding house in town for a day or two. When they got ready to leave the man said to the landlady that a certain other man in town would pay his bill, and with his valise in hand started to go. But the mistress of the house said "nary go," till the bill was paid, and, suiting the action to the word, she seized the valise, and finally succeeded in wresting it from the owner, and still holds it as hostage for two days board. We write that woman down as "clear grit," and if we had more such, fewer deadbeats would get off without paying their board

A MYSTERY SOLVED.

And the Body Found.

Our people will remember the intense excitement that was created last spring at Niantic by the sudden disappearance of Mr. Wm. Pierson, who was at the time treasute of the commissioners of highways for that town. It will be remembered that certain appearances indicated that he had been murdered, and his body thrown into Otter Lake, or otherwise disposed of, and this theory was fully endorsed by much the larger portion of community. There were, however, some circumstances which led several to believe that he had taken himself away, either by absconding or suicide, and some few have held firmly to the opinion that he was still alive. However, so general was the opinion that he was dead, that the whole neighborhood and town, and to some extent adjoining towns, rallied to make search for his body; and it will also be remembered that several members of a family living in the vicinity of where Pierson was last seen, were arrested on suspicion of having had something to do with his taking off. For two weeks excitement ran high; a diving apparatus, and the services of a professional diver, were procured from St. Louis, to explore the bottom of Otter Lake and that of the river in the vicinity, and numerous other expedients were resorted to to recover his body, if dead, and to ascertain his whereabouts if living—the expense of which was paid by voluntary subscriptions from the people of the town; and it is estimated that the money expended in the search could not have fallen much short of a thousand dollars, to say nothing of the large amount of time spent by the people in their efforts to recover the body Besides these outlays about $250 were raised by the neighbors to pay off a mortgage on Pierson's place, so that his family need not be embarrassed by it.

But while all this was going on some few said, "Bill Pierson is alive," and the facts given below fully corroborate the correctness of their opinions

On yesterday, Mr. Edgar, of Niantic, one of the commissioners of highways for that town, was coming east on the train from Quincy, which passes here at noon, when at a small station west of Springfield Mr. Wm. Pierson stepped on board the train. Mr. Edgar at once approached him, but Mr. P. declined to enter into any conversation whatever, and maintained a stubborn silence When the train arrived at Springfield Mr. Pierson stepped off and passed out of the depot.

Upon his arrival at Niantic Mr. Edgar informed several of the citizens where he had seen Pierson, and three of them (one of whom was his brother in-law) boarded the westward-bound train for Springfield in quest of him. These gentlemen were successful in their search, and last evening telegraphed to Niantic for a warrant for his arrest, from which fact it is inferred that he refused to accompany them to Niantic.

Mr Pierson had on the same hat and clothes that he wore when he went away, and had a small bundle of clothing under his arm.

The probability is that he is now in Niantic, and thus the mystery that so astounded everybody a few months ago, has been solved.

ATTEMPTED HIGHWAY ROBBERY.

A Man Attacked by two Ruffians. By a Desperate Struggle he Breaks away from them.

On last evening, about 10½ o'clock, as Mr. Frank M Pratt, of the firm of E B Pratt & Son, who resides with his father, at the corner of Church and Cerro Gordo streets, was on his way home from the Good Templars' lodge, as he was going north on Church street, between Eldorado and North streets, discovered two men ahead of him who were walking quite slowly As he wished to walk faster than they did, he started to pass them, and as he was in the act of doing so, one of the men staggered up against him, and by the weight of his body pushed Pratt toward the middle of the street. Whereupon Pratt demanded of the fellow what he was trying to do and what he wanted, when the desperado struck him in the face, and the other one seized him from behind, and demanded his money. A desperate scuffle then ensued between Pratt and both of his assailants, in which he finally got the better of them, and breaking away from their grasp made good time for his home. As quickly as possible he possessed himself of his revolver and put out in quest of the ruffians, but they were no where to be found. He then passed on toward town to meet his younger brother, who had not yet arrived home, fearing that he might fall into the clutches of the would be robbers. The two soon met, and passed on home without further molestation.

Held for Larceny.—On yesterday Mrs F. L. McPherson swore out a warrant against her late husband, David C. Hickman, charging him with the larceny of a cow. He was brought before Justice Hatch, who held him to bail in the sum of two hundred dollars, to appear at the next term of the circuit court. It seems that a portion of the personal property held in common by the parties during their married life was in dispute between them at the time of their separation, and Hickman pretends that this cow belonged to him.—But it appeared in evidence that the cow was bought with Mrs McPherson's money, and it was the opinion of the court that in spiriting her away Hickman had violated the law—consequently the decision to hold him to bail

JUSTICE HUGHES' COURT.

Trial of Tuvvel and Bivins for Assaulting Alexander Stiers.

Constable Weitsel arrested Thos. Tuvvel and Thos. Bivins on charge of an assault with deadly weapons upon the person of Alexander Stiers on Sunday afternoon, and brought them before Justice Hughes this morning at 10 o'clock to answer the charge.

Dr. Brown and O. F. McKim appeared for the prosecution, and Edwin Park for the defence.

About a dozen witnesses were summoned by each side, and the trial has thus far been one of unusual interest.

The examination of Stiers was not completed at noon when court adjourned.—This afternoon he was re-examined, and his story was substantially the same as that given in the REPUBLICAN yesterday.

POLICE NEWS.

Elizabeth Kessler, the fallen woman, who was the accomplice of Winterstein, in stealing certain household goods from Prof. Will L. Smith's dwelling, in the north part of the city, at various times until the 19th of July, was overhauled by Marshal Haworth last night and locked up in the county jail. This morning the marshal took her out and escorted her to Esq. Hughes' office, where, after an examination, she was held in $250 bond for her appearance at the next term of the circuit court. The woman stated that she was going to help him, when Smith came, and they got out in a hurry. Since that time she eluded the vigilance of the marshal until last night.

In default of $250 bond required, the woman was sent to board with Sheriff Jennings.

On July 19th, at the trial of Winterstein, he was allowed to go free on $100 bond, so that he could assist in condemning other parties who had stolen as well as he. It now appears that he has done all himself, and without delay he should be re-arrested and made to answer for stealing everything missing from the house

IMPROVEMENTS.

Mr. John Imboden has put up a new one-story frame building on the site of the one recently burned, corner of Broadway and Cerro Gordo streets. The new building will be rented to parties who are to occupy it with a meat shop.

Jos. Mills, Esq., is to build a neat frame dwelling on the corner of Cerro Gordo and Union streets.

Michael K. Carroll has had several thousand brick hauled and placed opposite his saloon. With these brick he intends next spring to build a front to his saloon, and to the boarding house next door south, which he has finally purchased from Mrs. Moroney. The front to both buildings will be as high as that of McEvoy's National Hotel. Both buildings will be improved.

A Camp of Gypsies is to be seen out east of the city, and persons living in their vicinity complain of their stealing and begging. Though the latter is only resorted to in case of necessity it comes sufficiently often to prove a great annoyance. They have not been at their present station very long, and rumor has it that they have a child, dressed as a girl, who answers the description of Charley Ross. If this be true it would pay any one to visit the camp.

Look out for a new lot of Silver-plated Ware and Jewelry, at J. L Knieper's, in a few days, for which he has gone east. d&wlw Protracted Meeting.—Elder N. S. Haynes, of the Christian Church, of this city, will conduct a protracted meeting at Blue Mound in a few days. His brethren here feel confident that he will be successful, as he is generally.

A Row Growing Out of a Row.—This afternoon as the trial of the assailants of Alexander Stiers was in progress in Justice Hughes' office, a couple of drunken witnesses in the stairway leading from the second to the third story of the building got into an altercation about the merits of the case and made a few passes at each other, but each was so drunk as to be unable to hit the other, and so no blood was shed. Officer Hewes happened along about this time and his presence had a wonderful effect in lulling the angry passions of the belligerents

The Expositions.—The Toledo, Wabash & Western are selling tickets to Cincinnati and return for $10.40, tickets good until Oct. 3d. Tickets to Louisville and return for $9.55, tickets good until Oct. 17th. On Sept. 7th they will commence the sale of tickets to Indianapolis and return for $6.40—tickets good for six days from date of sale. 4-dtf

How to Get Stamina.—Iron frames and strong nervous systems are not the lot of all. But the feeble need not despair. By adopting the right means they may live as long and enjoy life as much as their more robust neighbors. Physical invigoration is, however, necessary to this end; and while the spirituous tonics and nervines usually administered, eventually depress both body and mind, DR. J WALKER'S CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS invariably supply new vigor to the frame, while they regulate every disordered function 28-4w

Theatrical.—The great and only Lawrence Barrett will appear at the opera house on Saturday evening, in 'Richelieu.' This is one of Mr. Barrett's masterpieces, in which he is perfectly at home, and in which he has probably no superior on the American stage. The scale of prices is quite reasonable, considering Mr. Barrett's reputation as a first-class artist. Of course everybody will go and see him.

Mrs. Somers' Funeral.—The funeral of Mrs. Lottie H. Somers took place from the residence of her father, S. D. Lillieston, on West Cerro Gordo street, at 10½ o'clock this morning. Rev. J. C. Bonham conducted the services, at the close of which the remains were followed to Greenwood Cemetery by a very large concourse of people. The deceased was greatly beloved by all who knew her, and her early death has brought a pang of sorrow to many hearts.

Another Mansion.—Mr. E. McNabb, architect and builder, is now drawing plans for a fine brick residence which he is to erect in Warrensburg for Zack. Boughn, Esq., one of the wealthiest land owners in Macon county. The house is to be built something in the style of W. F. Busher's dwelling in this city, and will cost when completed not less than $7,000. Mr. McNabb is an old builder and will push this work forward with his usual energy.

Masonic.—Work in third degree tonight at 7½ o'clock. Macon Lodge and visiting brethren cordially invited.

By order of RUFUS C. CROOKER, W. M.

Fire!—The members of the Fire Department who are going to Litchfield on Thursday, are requested to meet at central hall Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, for final arrangements, and to procure their railroad tickets.

Kinder Garten.—Mrs. R. H. Murphy has opened a kindergarten school at her residence on West North street, and has at present a number of small children under her instruction.

Supervisors' Court.—The September term of the Supervisors' court opened to day At this meeting the annual tax levy will be made.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Is widely known as one of the most effectual remedies ever discovered for cleansing the system and purifying the blood. It has stood the test of years, with a constantly growing reputation, based on its intrinsic virtues, and sustained by its remarkable cures. So mild as to be safe and beneficial to children, and yet so searching as to effectually purge out the great corruptions of the blood, such as the scrofulous and syphilitic contamination. Impurities, or diseases that have lurked in the system for years, soon yield to this powerful antidote, and disappear. Hence its wonderful cures, many of which are publicly known, of Scrofula, and all scrofulous diseases, Ulcers, Eruptions, and eruptive disorders of the skin, Tumors, Blotches, Boils, Pimples, Pustules, Sores, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, and internal Ulcerations of the Uterus, Stomach, and Liver. It also cures other complaints, to which it would not seem especially adapted, such as Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Fits, Neuralgia, Heart Disease, Female Weakness, Debility, and Leucorrhœa, when they are manifestations of the scrofulous poisons.

It is an excellent restorer of health and strength in the Spring. By renewing the appetite and vigor of the digestive organs, it dissipates the depression and listless languor of the season. Even where no disorder appears, people feel better, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. The system moves on with renewed vigor and a new lease of life.
